JUNE PRIDE SCREENINGS CELEBRATION

CINEMAROSA will host the screening of YOUR EMOTIONALLY! by Bombay Director, Sridhar Rangayan, and a presentation of the multimedia project "LAVENDER INK" from CINEMAROSA's pilot educational program conducted with members of the writing program at SAGE \ Queens. Feature film co-presented by 3rdiNY.

As part of the Queens Museum of Art, June Pride Festivities, CINEMAROSA presents Free Screenings of works that celebrates the diverse LGBT communities of the borough and the world by featuring invited guest filmmakers and artists from the NYC metropolitan region and beyond. After the screenings join us to take part in Queerin' Queens 2006 Performances.

Sunday, July 16, 3:00-5:30 pm

LGBT FAMILY AFTERNOON

CINEMAROSA has partnered with Gay Parent magazine to present the first screening for LGBT parents, their kids and friends. The special program will feature the documentary "That's a Family!" (work that explores various family structures including gay and lesbian), and "Postcards From Buster: Sugartime" (the 8 year old rabbit visits the children of a Vermont lesbian couple and learns how to make maple syrup in their farm).

After the presentation there will be a photo taken workshop, ice cream and light refreshments will be served in the café of the museum. The event is also sponsored by the LGBT organization Circle of Support.

Sunday, August 20, 3:00 pm

OUTDOOR MiXin'06

Queer Films in Queens continue with the presentation of selected works related to the LGTB experience. Outdoor party to follow the screenings will be held in Flushing Meadows Park.
